The Key

*Northwestern Regional #7
High School
Volume V, 1963*

Just as the clouds drift slowly overhead, so we as individuals pass through the phases of life. We, the class of 1963, have completed a very significant phase, our high school years. Having achieved this goal together, we now face future challenges with eagerness. In remembrance of these years, we leave the 1963 edition of The Key. May all find as much enjoyment in its pages as we had in compiling it.

Dedication

We, the Class of 1963, wish to dedicate our edition of the Key to Mr. Hughes in appreciation of the knowledge and service given to us. We sincerely hope that his deep concern for and interest in his students will influence future classes as much as it has ours.

Mr. Hughes

Principal's Message

In preparing copy for publication at some far distant time, any writer is subject to the hazards of fortune which are inevitably interwoven with time. The athlete glorified may be revealed as an idol with feet of clay; the presently admired political leader may have been repudiated at the polls by his former followers; the successful business executive may have failed because of a change in fashion or economic climate.

In selecting words of advice to the young men and women of a graduating class who are finishing one phase of their education, I am not as likely to be betrayed by time. When I urge you to seek continual self-improvement through further education, in or outside of an educational institution, I can be confident that the advice will be valid all your lives. When I say to you to cultivate the personal attributes of honesty, integrity, and respect for all your fellow men, I have no fear that nuclear power or automation will endow less worthy attributes with the capacity to make your life more worthwhile.

In your search for the good life and personal fulfillment, my best wishes go with you.

Ernest S. Brown

Student Council

The Student Council has been working this year on problems not only in the school but also within the organization itself. The Constitution Committee has been working hard to revise and amend the Council's constitution. To benefit the entire school, a new committee has been established to supervise the planning of programs for the activity periods on Fridays. Another committee, consisting of one student from each town, has been established to work on the selection of a foreign student to attend Northwestern next year. These and other committees have served to make this an active year for the Council.

Honor Society

At the beginning of this school year, the National Honor Society was made up of only four Seniors: D. Gowen, S. Weaver, P. Church, and K. Pol. Although small, the Society did not lack initiative. During November, a very profitable paperback book sale was held in the library. The proceeds from this sale were used to pay off debts that the Society had incurred during its first initiation of the year. On March 15, the Society held its first initiation of the year during an Assembly.

The Hilltopper, after overcoming the problems of switching from mimeographed sheets to printed pages, can finally be called a regular newspaper for the first time this year. The Hilltopper has come out regularly every three weeks, with a special Alumni issue during the Christmas Vacation. It has gained advertisers to help pay for the cost of printing, and has been steadily improving during the year.

Radio Club

The Radio Club, one of our newest school-sponsored organizations, is under the direction of Mr. Storms. Membership is open to anyone in Junior or Senior High, the only requirement being a desire to learn more about amateur radio. Although the Club boasts only one bona fide "ham" - its president, Paul Vreeland - the members are working towards their novice test, which Mr. Storms is qualified to administer. Classes in radio theory and Morse code practice are held at each meeting and anyone interested is invited to attend.

D.A.R. Award

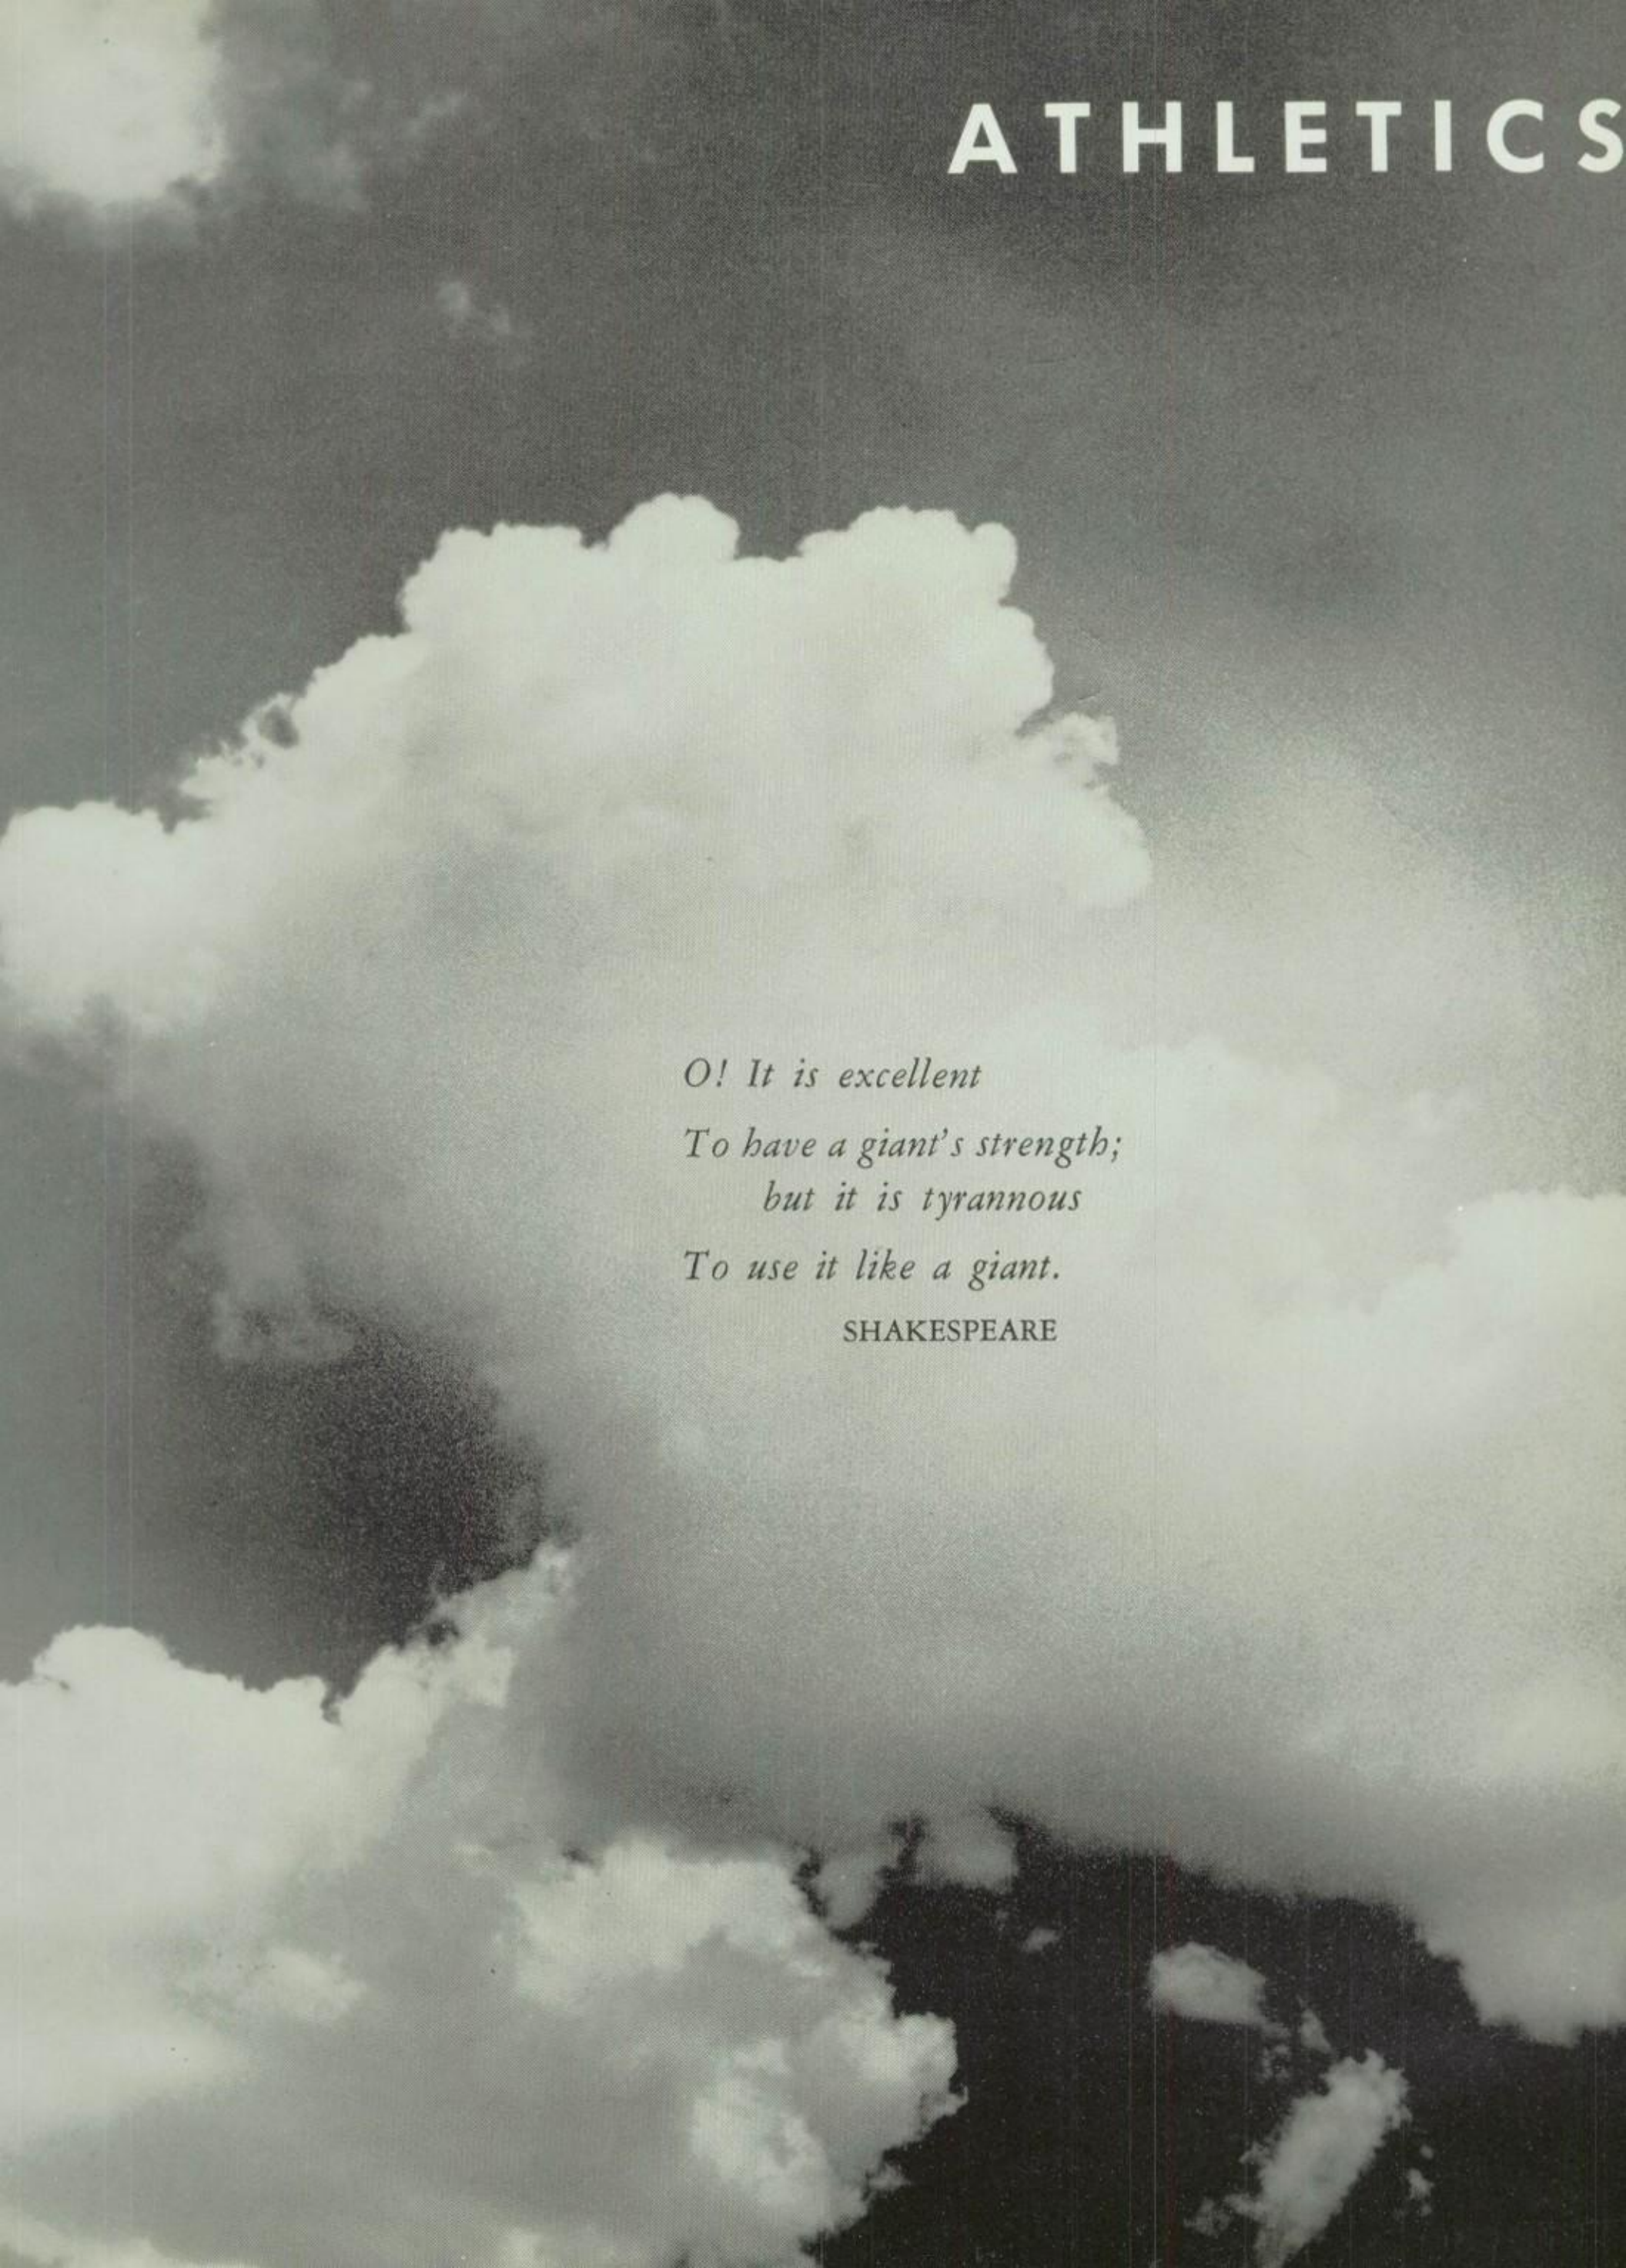

Early in the year three Senior girls were selected by members of their class as nominees for the D.A.R. Citizenship Award. In turn the faculty chose the girl they thought excelled in leadership, character, responsibility, and dependability. Upon the decision of the faculty, Ellen Furness became the worthy recipient of the award.

Foreign Students

This year Northwestern was most fortunate to have two foreign students join the Senior class. They were Yvonne deGroot of Holland and Asim Erdilek of Turkey. It was a pleasure to have Yvonne and Asim as members of the student body.

Highlanders Make Semi-Finals!

Our soccer team climaxed a long, successful season by playing against New Canaan in the Connecticut Interscholastic Athletic Conference Tournament. The teams were so evenly matched that the score was 0-0 at the end of the three quarters. However, in the fourth quarter, New Canaan made two goals to win the game.

Concerts

The band and chorus successfully presented three concerts this year. They were the Christmas Concert, Exchange Concert, and the Spring Concert. The year was climaxed by the annual New York Trip, when band and chorus members attended the musical "No Strings."

Senior Banquet

Senior Magazine Party

The senior class displayed their salesmanship by surpassing all previous classes in the annual magazine drive. Nancy Gray placed first, Kristopher Yedlin second, and David Hotchkiss third, as top salesmen. Homeroom nine placed last in total sales; therefore they gave the party for rooms four and three.

Where's the flag?

"50 bucks to shave 5 points."

Senior-Faculty Game

Basketball rules went out the window, as the faculty battled their way to victory over the seniors. Both sides made use of complex plays, running up their teammates' backs and speeding down court by bicycle. The final score, which was distorted by the faculty score-keeper, was 53-45.

Now what's he up to?

Senior Variety Show

"At times we wondered!"

The Senior Variety Show of 1963, aptly called "The Spirit of '63," was without a doubt a success. Under the leadership of Peter Di-Martino and the direction of Kathi Miller, 18 Acts were presented before an enthusiastic audience. The proceeds from the show went toward the 1963 edition of The Key.

The art (?) of make-up.

"That wasn't my motorcycle!"

"We ain't got a barrel of money"

"Where did all those people come from?"

"Same to you, fella!"

"Muguet Des Bois"

The Senior Prom, held on May 25, was the social highlight of the school year. Couples danced beneath a ceiling of azure blue to soft music. One side of the room was transformed into a spring garden, with a fountain nestled in colorful flowers and shrubs.
